Summary

Israeli occupation forces (IOF) continued to commit crimes and multi-layered violations against Palestinians in the occupied Palestinian Territory, including raids into Palestinian cities that are characterized with excessive use of force, assault, abuse, and two weeks witnessed intense arrest campaign across the West Bank, a raid into Birzeit University, demolitions in occupied east Jerusalem and the entire West Bank. Meanwhile, the Gaza Strip is in exercise the worst known collective punishment in human history, exacerbating the humanitarian hardship.

IOF shooting and violation of right to life and bodily integrity:

During the reporting period, IOF killed 3 Palestinians, including a child; and wounded 15 others in the West Bank, including occupied East Jerusalem.

On 4 December 2021, in a crime amounting to extrajudicial execution, IOF shot and killed Mohammed S.

Salfit, even though IOF had shot and wounded him, neutralizing any threats he proposed. The victim was killed in the occupied East Jerusalem. Data collected by PCHR and footage that documented the incident showed continuously at a Palestinian male, despite that he was wounded and had fallen to the ground; the soldier shot him. On 6 December 2021, IOF killed Mohammed Nedal Younis (16), from Nablus, claiming he ran over a checkpoint in southern Tulkarm.

On 10 December 2021, IOF killed Jamil Jamal Ahmed Abu-Ayesh (32) from Beita, as IOF assaulted him in the southeast of Nablus.

Additionally, IOF shot and wounded 3 Palestinian civilians, including a journalist and a child, during the IOF attack on Kafr Qaddum weekly protest in Qalqilya.

In the Gaza Strip, IOF intensified shootings on agricultural lands and fishing boats; PCHR documented 10 shootings on agricultural lands and bird hunters in the Gaza Strip's eastern border areas; and 7 shootings on fishing boats in the Gaza Strip.

IOF incursions and arrests of Palestinian civilians: IOF carried out 224 incursions into the West Bank. Those incursions included raids of civilian houses and shootings, enticing fear of civilians, and attack on civilians. In 201 incursions, 201 Palestinians were arrested, including 8 children and 4 women.

In the Gaza Strip, IOF arrested 2 fishermen and confiscated their fishing boat in the Gaza Sea; IOF attempted to cross the border area in eastern Rafah.

- On Saturday evening, 04 December 2021, Mo'ath al-Rajbi implemented the Israeli Municipality house in Beit Hanina village, north of occupied East Jerusalem, under the pretext of non-licensing construction of his house in Beit Hanina village and lived in it along with his family comprised of 5 persons. In which, the Israeli Municipality immediately issued an administrative demolition notice against him. He stated that the demolition order could not delay or freeze through Israeli courts, so he was forced to self-demolish his house to avoid fines to the municipality if they do so. He added that the 55-square-meter house shelters his Ghram (3) and Hussain (10 months).

- At approximately 09:00 on Monday, 06 December 2021, IOF backed by Israeli military vehicles and Israeli Civil Administration officers moved into al-Bowaib village, east of Yatta city in southern Hebron. IOF vehicles demolished Samer Salah Mohammed al-Ja'bari's house that was ready for habitation and an area of 80 square meters. Al-Ja'bari was supposed to live with his family comprised of five persons in the house. It should be noted that on 01 December 2021, Israeli authorities handed a military order to him 96 hours to demolish the house in order to achieve what is called "restitution in kind".

- At approximately 11:30, IOF backed by Israeli military vehicles and accompanied with Israeli Civil Administration officers moved into Zeaf area, north of Yatta in southern Hebron. IOF deployed in the area while military vehicles demolished Turki's two 20-square-meter rooms built of bricks. It should be noted that on 01 December 2021, Israeli authorities issued a demolition notice against Turki's house.

order NO. (1/97) for Abu Turki.

- On the same day, Bahaa 'Adnan Zaytoun implemented the Israeli Municipality's decision in the Ayoub neighborhood in Silwan village, south of occupied East Jerusalem's Old City, under the pretext that he built his 70-square-meter house 4 years ago and he lives in it along with his wife and their municipality handed him an administrative demolition order a week ago and gave him until January 1 to implement the order. Due to this, he was forced to self-demolish the house fearing for paying. Zaytoun pointed out that IOF demolished the house of his cousin namely Mohammed Zaytoun and his 6 members became homeless.
- At approximately 09:00 on Tuesday, 07 December 2021, Aryeh Yitzhak King, Deputy Mayor of Jerusalem, handed Fatema Salem a notice issued from the Israeli Executive Chamber to vacate her house in the neighborhood, north of occupied East Jerusalem's Old City, under the pretext that the house belongs to Fatema Salem (69) said that the Deputy Mayor of Jerusalem along with Israeli settlers raided her house before 21 December 2021. She clarified that she lives in the house with her 3 sons and the Deputy Mayor. She added that her house is established before 1948 and she was born in it in 1952. Also, she got married while living in the house. She has never left her house and does not intend to leave it. Fatema Salem's associations claimed their ownership of the house, since that, her family and she are struggling to prove their ownership. In 1988, Israeli settlers obtained a decision from Israeli courts to evacuate her and her family from her house. In 2015, the eviction decision was renewed, ordering her to evacuate the house along with her husband. Salem, the house owner's son, said that the family lawyer told them that the situation is very serious and they should be evicted from their home, which they had lived in all their lives, especially that they had been receiving the house since 1948. He should be noted that there are over 500 members living in 28 houses in Sheikh Jarrah neighborhood. Those residents are fighting for their houses, under the pretext of its ownership to settlement associations. Those residents are fighting for their ownership of their houses and cancel the decisions issued to displace them from their houses or seizing their houses.
- Around the same time, Israeli military vehicles demolished 3 agricultural rooms and handed demolition orders to dozens of inhabited and uninhabited houses in Nahalin village, west of Bethlehem, under the pretext of its ownership to settlement associations. Fanoun, Mayor of Nahalin village Municipality, said that IOF accompanied with Israeli military vehicles in the al-Adas areas, where they demolished 3 agricultural rooms belonging to Mahmoud Jamil Shaheen. He added that IOF attempted to demolish a livestock barn belonging to Shareef Musalam Mostafa. The latter refused to evacuate the livestock out of the barn, as well as dozens of citizens gathered and protested. IOF handed the barn's owner an eviction order as a prelude to demolish it within 3 days. Ibrahim 'Abd al-Razek, one of the owners, said that Israeli authorities demolished his 60-square-meter agricultural room established in 1948. He added that he previously received a cease-construction notice from the Israeli authorities, so he had obtained the necessary licenses and surveyed the site to prevent its demolition, but in vain as Israeli vehicles demolished the room and its contents without a prior warning or without handing him a demolition notice.
- At approximately 09:30, Israeli military vehicles levelled Kayed Na'iem Fataftah's land in al-Sal' village, southeast of occupied East Jerusalem. Also, they demolished a retaining wall surrounding the land. Fataftah said that he was shocked by storming his land, leveling it, damaging plants, and the cost of the damage was estimated at 100,000 shekels.
- On Saturday, 11 December 2021, Nassar family implemented the Israeli Municipality's order to demolish the house located in Wadi Qadoun neighborhood in Silwan village, south of occupied East Jerusalem's Old City, under the pretext of its ownership to settlement associations. The municipality handed the order to the Nassar family. Monther Nassar said that he, his son Mohammed, and his brother Jawad were forced to leave the house in the neighborhood, to avoid paying fines estimated at more than 200,000 shekels for Israeli Municipality's order. The house was established since 2014, and he has been lived in it along with his wife, his mother and his 6 kids. In January 2021, the municipality handed the order to demolish the house.

Monther Nassar said that he, his son Mohammed, and his brother Jawad were forced to leave the house in the neighborhood, to avoid paying fines estimated at more than 200,000 shekels for Israeli Municipality's order. The house was established since 2014, and he has been lived in it along with his wife, his mother and his 6 kids. In January 2021, the municipality handed the order to demolish the house.

house, containing a room and its facilities for his son Mohammed, who lives in it with his wife and their brother Jawad built a 70-square-meter house near his house sheltering his wife and their 4 children. He has been pursuing the three houses since 2015 and imposed fines on them estimated at 52,000 shekels. He attempted to license the houses, but in vain. Nassar said that the municipality does not grant licenses and no longer accept pleas to freeze demolition decisions, so its owners are forced to demolish them fearing the difficulty of the Palestinian citizen's lives in Jerusalem, especially with the soaring price of house rent.

- At approximately 09:00 on Monday, 13 December 2021, IOF confiscated a 4700-square-meter land north of occupied East Jerusalem's Old City, ordered its owners to evacuate it forcibly and deny any excavation works in it, under the pretext of being public utility.

It should be noted that in last November, Israeli Supreme Court approved a decision issued by the municipality of the strategically located land in Sheikh Jarrah neighborhood that belongs to Jarallah, 'Odah, 'Obaidat, and Mansour families concerning the Israeli District Court decision that the land is considered a public utility. Malek 'Obaidat, one of the land's owners, had previously said that the Israeli Supreme Court decision was against the families along with Jarallah, 'Odah and Mansour families concerning the Israeli District Court decision that the land is considered a public utility, and the court rejected the municipality's claim. 'Obaidat clarified that the land is in a sensitive and important location in occupied East Jerusalem. It is an area which Jews consider as a holy shrine to them, and is visited by settlers on their holidays and occasions. The houses in this area, which houses are threatened to be evicted in favor for settlement associations. 'Obaidat added that the land has been considered in the Israeli court since 2005, throughout those years, the municipality questioned the families' ownership but the families proved their ownership in the Israeli Supreme Court. In 2015, these families were sued by the municipality for a decision to confiscate the land with the support of the MEHI – MIDDLE EAST HOTELS, and by agreement to convert the land into a garden at the hotel's expense and compensate the land's owners with money provided that the municipality allows to increase the construction area in the hotel from 18,000 to 36,000 sqm. The land's owners would not accept the hotel owners' compensation for them and would pursue the case. Mohanad Jbara, issued a statement warning of the seriousness of the confiscation decision. He also warned that the decision of the land encourages the settlers to seize the land that may turn into a hotbed for settlers coming to Sheikh Jarrah.

- At approximately 01:00 on Monday, 13 December 2021, IOF backed by military vehicles and a truck moved into Jabal Jawhar area in southern Hebron. IOF raided and searched Kamal Hasan Ghaith's house door with a special machine. After that, they stormed and searched the 1st floor and confiscated items. IOF handed the family a list of confiscated items allegedly used in favor of terrorist organizations. The items were estimated at 100,000 shekels.

- At approximately 08:00 on Tuesday, 14 December 2021, Israeli municipality vehicles demolished the foundations of Maghareba area in Silwan village, south of occupied East Jerusalem's Old City, under the pretext that the area was built a year ago, and when he got married, he lived with his mother in a small house. He clarified that he recently built a 70-square-meter house comprising of 2 rooms and its facilities. He clarified that he recently challenged the Israeli municipality, which allowed him to challenge the demolition order within a certain period. The municipality did not consider the challenge submitted 2 days ago, and demolished the house over him enough time to get them out of the house.

- At approximately 10:00, the Israeli municipality continued to demolish the foundations of Eyad al-'Amoud neighborhood, east of occupied East Jerusalem's Old City. It should be noted that Eyad al-'Amoud started building the house in the mid of last November to avoid paying fines to the municipality. Eyad said that he received a notice from the municipality in last June, and he submitted an appeal to the Israeli District Court, but it was rejected. After that, the municipality continued to demolish the foundations of the house.

an appeal to the Israeli Supreme Court, which was refused as well. Burqan pointed out that his house was built in an area of 300 square meters and costed more than 700,000 shekels. He was He hoped and their six children, including a child with disability. Also, he added that he was forced to self-demolish 400,000 shekels to the municipality. He was shocked by IOF storming to his house and demolishing it without paying the fines.

- At approximately 12:00, Israeli military vehicles demolished 'Attah Ja'afrah's house in Jabel Muk Jerusalem's Old City, under the pretext of non-licensing. Ja'afrah said that he built his 90-square-meter house with 10 members, including 6 children. He clarified that 10 years ago, the Israeli Municipality pursued him against his house. Throughout the past years, he attempted to freeze the demolition order, deal with the municipality and the Israeli courts. Ja'afrah added that, 15 months ago, the Israeli Court issued a notice notified him that it will impose fines on him if he will not self-demolish his house.

- On Wednesday, 15 December 2021, Nassar family implemented the Israeli Municipality order to demolish their house in Wadi Qaddoum neighborhood in Silwan village, south of occupied East Jerusalem's Old City, under the pretext of non-licensing. Mazen Nassar said that he and his brothers "Mohammed Zaid" and "Mohammed Fadel" implemented self-demolition of their houses in Wadi Qaddoum neighborhood fearing for paying fines to the municipality of 400,000 shekels for each of them if they would not implement the demolition. He clarified that three houses are 90 square meter.

He added that his house sheltered 11 members, his brother Mohammed Zaid's house sheltered 8 members, and Mohammed Fadel's house sheltered the same number of members. Nassar indicated that the three houses also had been received demolition orders from the Israeli municipality, under the pretext that they were to construct a park. Nassar pointed out that the municipality gave them until the end of this year to self-demolish. He added that his father, Mohammed Nassar, bought the land 35 years ago, but the municipality issued demolition orders under the pretext of constructing a park on it, as his father refused to sell the land or replace it with another land. A house was established on the land 25 years ago, in addition to 2 other houses established 19 years ago, sheltering 70 members.

- At approximately 10:30, IOF backed by military vehicles and accompanied with Israeli Civil Administration officers entered Wadi Qaddoum village, south of Hebron. The Israeli Civil Administration officers distributed 4 cease-construction notices under the pretext of non-licensing. The notices were as follows:
