Biden Admin Backtracks Claim of 'Terrorists Beheading Children' in Israel

| WALKING IT BACK |

WALKING IT BACK: Night Editor

Updated On: 11:30 AM EDT | Published On: 11:30 AM EDT

Late Wednesday, the White House retracted statements made by President Joe Biden during his speech during a meeting of Jewish community leaders, in which he said that he “could not imagine seeing terrorists beheading children.”

The Washington Post quoted a White House spokesman as saying, “Neither President Biden nor any US official has seen any images or independently confirmed reports about this.”

The spokesman added that Biden's statements regarding the alleged atrocities were based on allegations by Israeli Prime Minister Benjamin's spokesman Netanjahu and Israeli media reports.

The Western media was called to be accurate and not biased towards the Israeli narrative.

In this context, an American official told Al Jazeera that what Biden said regarding alleged atrocities in the Hamas attack came from statements by Israeli officials.

What are the consequences of this lie?

Israel shows mutilated babies

● Images alleged to be proof of atrocities ● Britain sends two Royal Navy ships ● Sunak hits out at protesters and BBC

Richard Spencer: Tel Aviv
Adam Lipton: Washington
Adam Szejda: Paris

Israel published photographs last night that it said showed mutilated bodies including a baby allegedly murdered by Hamas, the Palestinian terrorist group responsible for a series of massacres last weekend.

The pictures were posted on Israeli government social media. "This is the most difficult image we have ever posted but we must show and warn you of it to you to know: This happened," it said on Twitter.

It said the images, which The Times is choosing not to publish as they are too graphic, had been taken by the armed forces, who had found "mutilated bodies" in settlements attacked by Hamas on Saturday.

The decision followed a row over allegations by some Israeli soldiers without evidence that Hamas had been beheaded. The search and rescue team found "decapitated babies, women with hands cut off, burnt bodies," Daniel Hagari, a non-attached to the Israel Defense Forces (IDF) said, adding that there was no evidence of the alleged atrocities. He did not say whether it would be released, despite days of contradictory statements about whether the claim could be corroborated.

Antony Blinken, the US secretary of state, who flew into Israel yesterday, was shown some pictures. He said "Images are worth a thousand words. These images may be worth a million."

The pictures were released five days after Hamas massacred and kidnapped Israeli men, women and children, as well as soldiers. The assault triggered hundreds of retaliatory airstrikes from Israel, amid waves of Palestinian rockets, with casualties rising on both sides. The Hamas attacks killed 1,100 people.

Baptist Hospital Brutal Massacre.. A Great Calamity and a Heinous War Crime

Israeli warplanes launched an airstrike against the al-Ahli Baptist Hospital in Gaza City, killing and injuring thousands of people, on October 17, 2023.

Al-Ahli Baptist Hospital was sheltering thousands of displaced people who were seeking refuge after their homes were destroyed in the ongoing Israeli shelling, when it was bombed Tuesday.

Numbers vary. But it is estimated that at least 500 Palestinian civilians, mostly women, children, and elders, have been killed in a devastating Israeli strike at a Al-Ahli Baptist Hospital in Gaza City.

The type of bombs used in this attack is different from previous bombs.

“Previous bombs are intended to penetrate deep in ground,” according to media. This time around, they used targeted missiles that are able to create as much damage as possible above ground.

This cold-blooded massacre committed will forever remain a stain on the conscience of humanity that has been witnessing the horrors committed against the Palestinian people without taking action to stop it.

Every rule of international law is being shredded as thousands are mercilessly massacred and millions of people are being stripped of their humanity, subjected to wanton killing, starvation and forced transfer, with no end in sight as Israeli occupying forces (IOF) continue to pound the Gaza Strip with thousands of missiles and bombs, targeting civilian areas by air, land and sea and committing mass murders.

This massacre prompted many social media platforms, especially the X website, formerly known as Twitter, to point the finger at the British BBC network after it published a report a few days ago alleging that the Hamas movement had built many tunnels under hospitals.

angelinajolie This is the deliberate bombing of a trapped population who have nowhere to flee. Gaza has been an open-air prison for nearly two decades and is fast becoming a mass grave. 40% of those killed are innocent children. Whole families are being murdered. While the world watches and with the active support of many governments, millions of Palestinian civilians - children, women, families - are being collectively punished and dehumanized, all while being deprived food, medicine and humanitarian aid against international law. By refusing to demand a humanitarian ceasefire and blocking the UN Security Council from imposing one on both parties, world leaders are complicit in these crimes.

One of the flyers was to urge people leave their homes to safe places .. Israeli forces shot most of the displaced palestinians on their ways or even on the new locations after promising they will be safe..

The flyer says:

" It is time for the State of Israel to ask you to preserve your lives and evacuate your homes immediately from the combat zone. The safe way for civilians to move south You must evacuate starting from ten in the morning until two in the afternoon, other than Salah al-Din Road, and you must go to the humanitarian zone in the south. Your presence in the city is very dangerous for you. The battle is intense throughout the city. There is no safe place."
